Before you sign this form, it is important that you have read and understood the rules about the Railcard and the tickets you can buy with it.

These rules for the Railcard are called Terms and Conditions and are in the leaflet about Railcards.

You also need to have read the rules for using the train (National Rail Conditions of Carriage).

You can get them from the website:

www.nationalrail.co.uk/nrcc

Or telephone National Rail Enquiries or the Disabled Persons Railcard office to find out where else you can get them.

You need to sign this to say:

I have understood and agree to the Terms and Conditions of the Disabled Persons Railcard and the National Rail Conditions of Carriage.

The information I have written here is right and I can show proof that I have a disability and can get this Railcard.
